AHA chapter meets

The Appomattox Chapter of the American Heart Association met Nov. 29 at Central Fidelity Bank. Dr. Richard Poe was presiding officer. Members present were Richard Poe, Roy Moon, Joyce Jamerson, Janies McCormick, Jean LeGrand, Ken Powell, Margaret Shields, Jane Pack, Sadie Brightwell, W.C. Dudley and Margaret Dudley. Also present were staff members from the Virginia Heart Association Office in Lynchburg, Janie Dowdy and William Sugrue.

A slate of officers was accepted for 1984-84 as follows: President, Dr. Kenneth Powell; Vice-president, Roy Moon; Secretary, Wanda Doss; Treasurer, Jean LeGrand; Time to Remember Chairman, Delores Hopkins.

Committee chairmen were named to direct various activities of the coming year. Frances Abbitt will direct the Public Information Committee; Rebecca Fox will continue as Chairman of Health Education Program.

Margaret Shields will serve as chairman of the Hypertension Committee. She will be in charge of contacting one of the industries in Appomattox to do a Hypertension Screening Program.

Roy Moon and Dr. Richard Poe will co-chair the Fund Raising Committee. A campaign goal of $4700 was approved for 1984-85. In order to reach the goal the following activities were considered: (a) Cardiac Arrest to be held in the spring of 1985. Chairman to be announced; (b) Letters to businessesen. Jane Pack will head this committee and will get letters to local businesses in Dec. of this year; (c) Golf Tournament, Joyce Jamerson will chair the committee and will report at the next meeting; (d) Churches, Roy Moon will get donation envelopes for distribution to churches in February of 1985.

The Cardiovascular Health Education Committee chairman will be announced at a later date.

Last year under the leadership of Dr. Richard Poe the local chapter raised $3,000. This is the second year since the organization of the Appomattox County Chapter of the American Heart Association.

At this meeting 1984-85 campaign and community programs were organized. Heart Health Education for the Young (Kindergarten through grade two in our county school system is one program already underway). Another primary goal being hypertension prevention by way of blood pressure screening in local industries.

The next meeting of the Appomattox County Chapter of the American Heart Association is January 29, 1985 at 7:30 at Central Fidelity Bank.

Society elects directors

Members of the Appomattox County Historical Society recently enjoyed a Christmas program, with a story by Harriett Cunningham and music by Charlene Lawson and Lois Williams.
